

Hungarian American
Coalition

PLEASE JOIN US

"Hungarian Americans Together" HATOG Conference

A conference dedicated to the exploration of the ways our community could preserve, promote and transmit its cultural heritage for future generations.

The conference is organized by West Coast members of the Hungarian American Coalition and co-hosted by the Honorary Consulate General of Hungary in San Francisco. We invite all Hungarian American organizations and individuals to participate, and to introduce their activities and get acquainted, so we can discuss and find solutions together.

Program

Saturday, March 2, 2013 8:30am-5:30 pm

Location: Honorary Consulate General of Hungary

2000 Alameda de Las Pulgas, San Mateo, CA 94403

A partial list of topics on the agenda:

Pass It On, Establish Best Practices in Preserving and Passing On Hungarian Heritage

Hungarian Heritage Month, Smithsonian Folk Life Festival, Washington, DC

Hungarian Language Instruction

Establishing a Hungarian Heritage Center

Hungarian Scouting

Hungarian Dance and Music, telling Our Stories through the Hungarian Cinema

The Role of Hungarian American Religious Institutions, American Business Associations and Sister Cities

The Role of Hungarian Diplomacy

Use of Technology and Social Media

Dinner at the Free Magyar Reformed Church, 102 Laurel Street, Redwood City, CA 94063

Followed by a presentation of Zina's Hungarian Folk Singing Circle

Sunday, March 3, 2013 9:00am-3:00 pm

Location: Hungarian Catholic Mission, c/o Woodside Priory School

302 Portola Road, Portola Valley, CA 94028

Continuation of topics and Wrap-Up Session

Religious services: Mass or religious service at the Free Magyar Reformed Church

Lunch and meeting with the local Hungarian community

QUESTIONS & COMMENTS

West Coast Organizing Committee

Eva Voisin, San Mateo, 650. 573.7351, evoisin@ix.netcom.com;

Helen Szablya, Seattle, WA szablyahj@aol.com

Geza Kadar, Santa Rosa, CA 707.536.8956, gkadar@comcast.net;

Katalin Voros, Orinda, CA, voros@eecs.berkeley.edu

HATOG ATTENDANCE IS FREE

however, a suggested voluntary donation of $30 is appreciated to cover dinner and other expenses

RSVP & REGISTRATION

hatogsanfrancisco.eventbrite.com